

DUMMY FILE

The automated system for uploading our article pdf files for our annual report refuses to accept even pdf/A files. I struggled to find out what pdf/A is and to install a converter of pdf files to pdf/A but, still, the system finds several converted files non-compliant.

Hence, the pdf file for this paper is emailed separately to the program director and is also posted on the project website as appropriate.